

The YorOK Children's Trust

The YorOK Children's Trust is a partnership of organisations that provide services to children, young people and families in York. YorOK provides the following information, training and support to members of the children's workforce:

The YorOK Website: www.yor-ok.org.uk/workforce

The YorOK website is a useful resource for anyone that works or volunteers with children, young people and families. It includes an online service directory, information about key services, training and workforce development, parenting, teenage pregnancy and sexual health and much more...

There is also a section for children, young people and parents.

The YorOK Induction: www.yor-ok.org.uk/induction

The YorOK Induction is available for anyone who works or volunteers with children, young people and families in York and can be used by both new and existing members of the workforce. The induction includes:

- The online self assessment which allows you to assess your knowledge against key areas and then signposts to related information, training and resources
- Multi agency 'Welcome to YorOK' sessions providing information about the YorOK Children's Trust, key contacts and services and an opportunity for members of the workforce to come together and learn about each others roles. Book online at www.yor-ok.org.uk/induction

The YorOK Newsletter

The YorOK Workforce Newsletter is a bi-monthly eNewsletter for everyone in the YorOK Workforce. The newsletter is full of useful articles about work happening across children's trusts arrangements in York. You can sign up for the newsletter at www.yor-ok.org.uk/workforcenewsletter. You can also submit your own articles to the newsletter if you would like to publicise some news or a project.

The Training and Development Unit

The Training and Development Unit provides information about training courses and development opportunities available to the children and young people's workforce. To find out what courses are on offer visit:
